

JOINT MEETING ON YOUTH PREVENTION, TREATMENT, AND RECOVERY

March 18-20, 2024
Baltimore, MD

Held in conjunction with the Pathways to Wellness Forum

Occurring March 20-21, 2024

Conference provided with federal partners, including the Bureau of Indian Affairs

SAMHSA
Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration

The National Center on Youth Prevention, Treatment, and Recovery, in partnership with SAMHSA, the Bureau of Indian Affairs/Office of Justice Services, and Indian Health Services, Behavioral Health Division, will be hosting the national Joint Meeting on Youth Prevention, Treatment, and Recovery in conjunction with the third annual Pathways to Wellness Forum in Baltimore, MD. This conference brings together practice, research, and policy to address the top public health problem facing our nation's youth: alcohol and other drugs.

Our website is live!
More information about the conference is available there.

youthrecoveryanswers.org

Many different stakeholder groups will be present - including people with lived experience, their loved ones, researchers, clinicians, and policy makers.

Contact us at info@youthrecoveryanswers.org